Geocaching

Joy Andersen

Psst! Want to find hidden treasure? Joy will show you how with GPS and an online "treasure map" you can explore our world and find hidden treasure.

Camp Cooking

Joy Andersen

Can you make stew in a cardboard box? Does the sight of a camp stove strike terror in your heart? Joy will take the mystery out of cooking in the great outdoors.

Fun & Games?

Joy Andersen

Short games for teaching program, for learning, for filling time and for fun. Come out and play with Joy

Girls United

Joy Andersen, Lois Anderson, Lorry Mann

Bullying occurs everywhere, including in Guiding. Join us in this powerful session to learn about the ways bullies work and how we can identify, manage and prevent bullying. A GGC TEAM Enrichment Module.

Exploring Wild BC

Lois Anderson

Wild BC has a number of great activities for exploring and enjoying our natural world -Project Wild, Project WET, and many more. Lois will give you a sampling of activities you can take back to your unit. This counts as TWO sessions

Trash to Treasure

Lorry Mann

Craft materials for a group can quickly add up. Lorry will show you how to use recycled materials to make great things. You will never look at your recycling the same way!

Set the Scene with Dramatic Arts

Nancy Ferguson

Do you have a budding Kate Winslet in your unit? Nancy will show you how all the girls in your unit can have fun unleashing their inner actor. A GGC TEAM Enrichment Module

Flora & Fauna Hike

Joy Andersen

What is that flower outside your meeting place? Joy will take you on a hike near Blewett School identifying the plants and animals you come across on your way.

Recycling a Guide dress

Mary Defeo

Remember the old Guide uniform dress? Maybe you wore one or maybe they were in vogue when you started as a unit Guider. Mary has a great design for turning them into a useful bag

Independent International Trips

Janet LaRocque

Guiding is a world-wide organisation, so how do you get your girls see the Guiding world? Janet has taken girls to Europe three times. She will give you planning tips and de-mystify the forms.

Financial

Teresa Jansen

Guiding money is public money and we have to look after it carefully. Teresa will show you how to keep track of the Brownie Gold, dues and cookie money. This is a GGC TEAM Enrichment Module.

Scrapbooking

To be announced

You went on a great adventure and took all those photos. Now what? A scrapbook can be a great record of all the things your unit, committee or council have been doing.

Awards

Cheryl Cherry & Teresa Jansen

All Guiders are volunteers and deserve recognition for the work they do. Cheryl and Teresa will tell you about the "official" Guiding awards and fun ways to recognise the women you work with.

Make your computer work for you

Nicole Amadio

Tired of asking your kids (or grandkids) to make your unit newsletter? Nicole will show you how to make your computer work for you. Efficient e-mail, natty newsletters and fun flyers will all make you unit run more smoothly.

Bag of Tricks

Lorry Mann

Your Brownie unit has just finished a visit to the fire hall - 20 minutes early. Now what? Lorry will help you develop a bag of tricks full of games & activities that need no equipment.

Move it & Shake it

Nancy Ferguson

Music isn't just sitting in a circle singing. Nancy will show you how to get your unit up and moving to music.
